

SHAKESPEARE for THE SCHOOLS

THE SHOW (AND LEARNING) MUST GO ON!

For almost 30 years, Shakespeare in the Schools has been our region’s most trusted source for cutting-edge Shakespearean education. This fall, Shakespeare FOR the Schools offers exciting, engaging, and safe programs for your classroom. Teachers can choose models that are synchronous or asynchronous.

Choose From Asynchronous Learning Materials to be led by the Classroom Teacher or Virtual Workshops to be led by Montana Shakespeare in the Parks

- HIP HOP AND SHAKESPEARE
Connecting the poetry from two seemingly separate worlds
- GENDER AND THE OTHER
Delve into the complex characters of Shakespeare’s plays as they wrestle with the creation of their identities
- SHAKESPEARE AND POP CULTURE: 21ST CENTURY AND THE BARD
Critically explore film adaptations and utilize current technology to personalize Shakespeare’s plays for the modern student
- SHAKESPEARE’S TWELFTH NIGHT GRAPHIC NOVEL ADAPTATION

Enjoy reading an adaptation of the classic play along with educational, artistic, and interactive elements for students to enjoy.
